

According to the McKinney Vento Law,
Children and youth in homeless situations have the right to:

Go to school, no matter where they live or how long they have lived there;

Choose between the local school where they are living, the school they attended before they lost their housing, or the school where they were last enrolled;

Enroll in school without proof of residency, immunizations, school records, or other documents;

Get transportation to school of origin

Get all the school services they need;

Be free from harassment and isolation; and

Have disagreements with the school settled quickly.
