

Pamela E. Walters is currently attending Metropolitan State College of Denver majoring in English, minoring in Spanish, and earning a teacher's licensure in Secondary Education. She has volunteered at Montbello High School for one year and has been classified as an employee for two years. She is a paraprofessional for the Parent/Community Involvement Center. Her position allows her to work with Student Government, assist with planning school events, and mentor students. Pamela enjoys working with the students at Montbello High School and currently continues to volunteers her time with the Warriors as Coordinator for Sista Phi Gamma, Non-Greek High School Sorority; a student leadership club in Montbello High School.