Principal's report:

Thanks from Dr. Potts regarding our help with the Obama speech decision. Photoa of Park Hill kids watching the speech were featured in the New York Times.

Blue flyers are in the building courtesy of Frank Tapy regarding the School Board candidates.

Dr. Potts attended a meeting about overcrowding at Stapleton.

October 16th is the first early release date. Kaleidoscope only taking students already enrolled in Kaleidoscope.

Parent Teacher Conferences start October 22. Discussed options regrading how to best let parents sign up? Decided the lists will be in the Community Room, October 7, 8, 9. It will be put on the school calendar and teachers will send home a reminder to sign up.

After school class requests are coming in (Yoga, art, etc).
Susan Gamble offered to help Dr. Potts "filter" the requests.

Dr. Potts went over use of Budget overages (due to exceeded projections). PTSA is happy to provide small "grants" to teachers upon request.

Teachers need to give at least one meeting notice if at all possible.

The total available for grants is about $2000.00.

Chris Ando brought up the specials teachers who take lunch duty (only required for 2 years, and all of ours are over 2 years). We need to come up with some other solutions for that ongoing problem.

The school performance framework was reviewd. Dr. Potts took questions to take back to the Department of Assessment and Research.

Parent Satisfaction Survey Feedback group.will be meeting in small groups to identify trends, etc.

CSC Roles and Task assignments:

Gayla Story emailed a general idea list (who volunteered for what) after the last meeting.

Susan Gamble suggested that the community room have pictures, literature about the school, etc. as the school tours will be meeting in that room Alison Doerfel offered to help with the communications committee, along with Brad Parks, Mikki Wilde, and Chris Ando.

Celebrations and concerns:

Everyone thanked Lori Kerr for the very successful Teacher Appreciation Happy Hour.

East High School Student Council is coming on Thursdays to read to the kidnergarteners.

Gayla Story thanked Chris Ando for helping with the testing last week. Morale is very high among the staff.

We have our first H1N1 flu case in the building.
