All students interested in these assignments should be prepared with a short speech of no more than one minute, welcoming an audience to the Festival in the character of the persona they have chosen. For a court member, it would be acceptable to choose an actual member of the Royal Court of Elizabeth's time and develop that persona. Elizabeth and Shakespeare will be furnished costumes, Court will need to furnish their own. Costumes must be cleaned and returned before school is out. Each applicant should complete the accompanying application form and bring it to the audition on March 20 2009 at 3:30 at 1330 Fox St. 2nd Floor South. Form due Monday, March 2, 2009.
