

THE WONDER
OF SCIENCE
AT TWENTY NINTH STREET

Twenty Ninth Street and the TWOS partners present: The Wonder of Science Autumnal Equinox Celebration

Sunday, September 20 11:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

The Wonder of Science (TWOS) Autumnal Equinox Celebration is a FREE family event celebrating the autumnal equinox. Enjoy science and technology fun at outdoor booths located throughout the Twenty Ninth Street shopping center.

A sampling of what you'll get to do:

- Experience Sun fun and research
- Learn about laser radar
- Set your watch to the atomic clock
- Observe Sunspots
- Understand magnetic fields on the Sun and on Earth
- Discover the reason for the seasons
- Launch weather balloons
- Play a "black box" game to be an Earth scientist
- Search for other Earths and learn about the Kepler spacecraft
- Try your hand at solar system puzzles and games
- Explore the permanent science exhibits

TWENTY NINTH
STREET

TWOS Partners

National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR)
National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA)
National Institute of Standards & Technology (NIST)
Space Science Institute (SSI)
National Renewable Energy Lab (NREL)
University of Colorado's and NIST's JILA
University of Colorado's Laboratory for Atmospheric and Space Physics (LASP)
Ball Aerospace & Technologies Corp.
Cooperative Institute for Research in Environmental Sciences (CIRES)
Impact on Education
University of Colorado's Fiske Planetarium

1710 29th Street
Boulder, CO 80301

East of 28th Street between
Arapahoe & Walnut

FREE garage parking

Rain Date:
September 27, 2009

